The website www.ritualwell.org (established by Reconstructing Judaism but very pluralistic with contributions from all branches of Judaism) has a lot of resources. There is a general section of prayers, poems, readings, etc on "Healing and Hard Times" <https://www.ritualwell.org/healing-hard-times>. And a search of the index using the keyword "coronavirus" yielded 132 entries. Of course people who have written materials are welcome to submit them--this section continues to grow.
